CONDITIONAL CLASS CERTIFICATION

[Re Docket No. 64]

For the reasons stated at the hearing, the collective action is conditionally certified. The court views the requirements for conditional certification to be very liberal. Plaintiff and defendant are to agree on the form of the proposed notice within fifteen days or submit their respective proposed notices within fifteen days. Defendant has thirty days in which to provide addresses for the allegedly similarly situated individuals. Defendant does not have to provide either social security numbers or telephone numbers at this time.
